

Day of the Dead Scavenger Hunt Reading Game

Ready-to-go scavenger hunt reading game!

Take a look inside!

LOOKING FOR WAYS TO MAKE READING MORE FUN? ADD IN SOME CULTURE TOO!

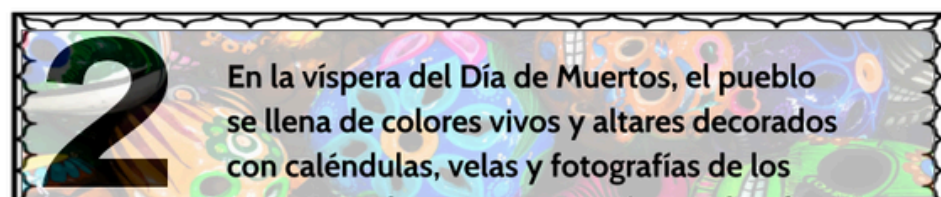

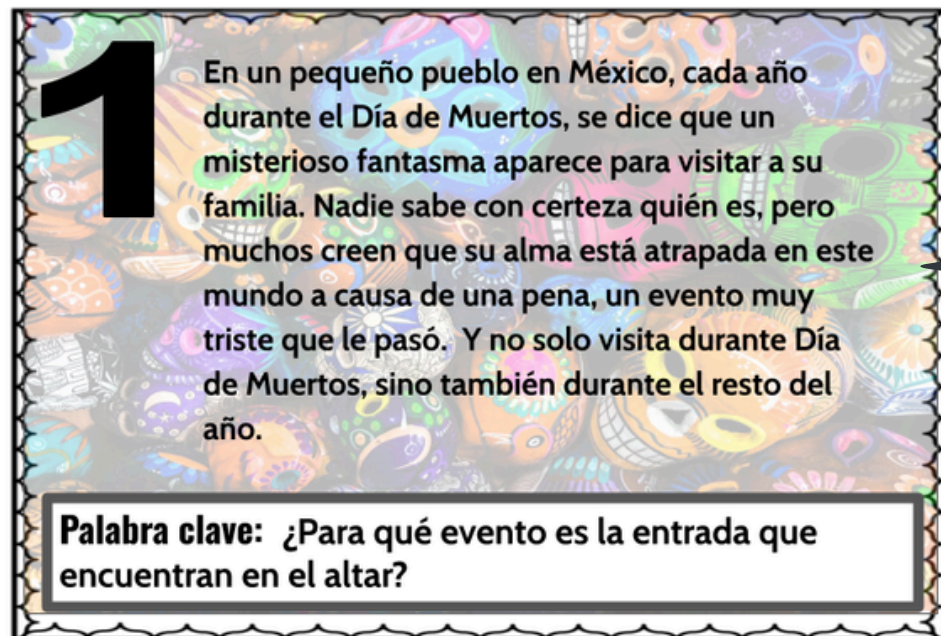

Want students to learn about Day of the Dead traditions?

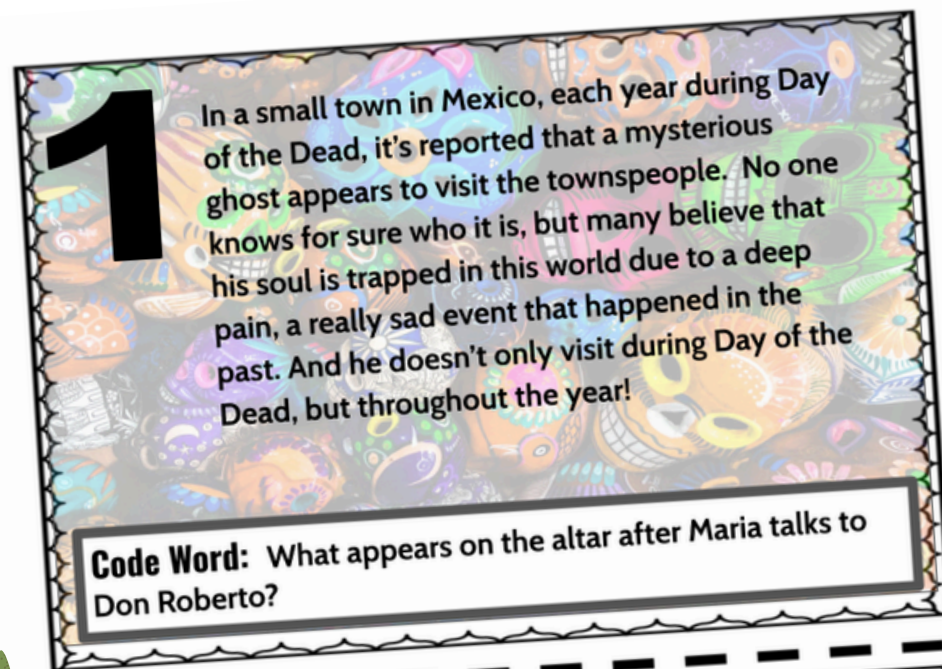

Looking for a fun way to incorporate culture?

Need a new way to get kids up, talking and working together?

Try This!

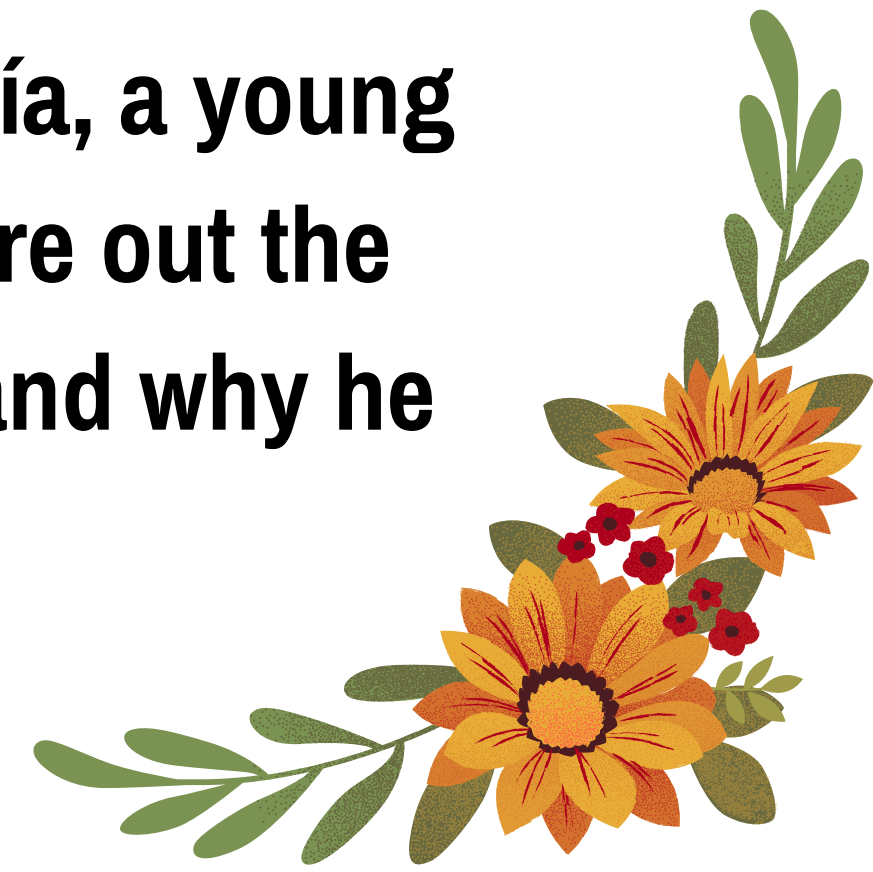

Students are solving a mystery by figuring out code words!

The story is based in Mexico during Day of the Dead.

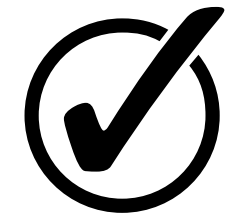

Students are helping María, a young person from Mexico, figure out the mystery of the lost soul and why he can't rest in peace.

How To Use These

Pair students and go over the instructions and mission.

Hang story cards around the room. Students will walk around to read.

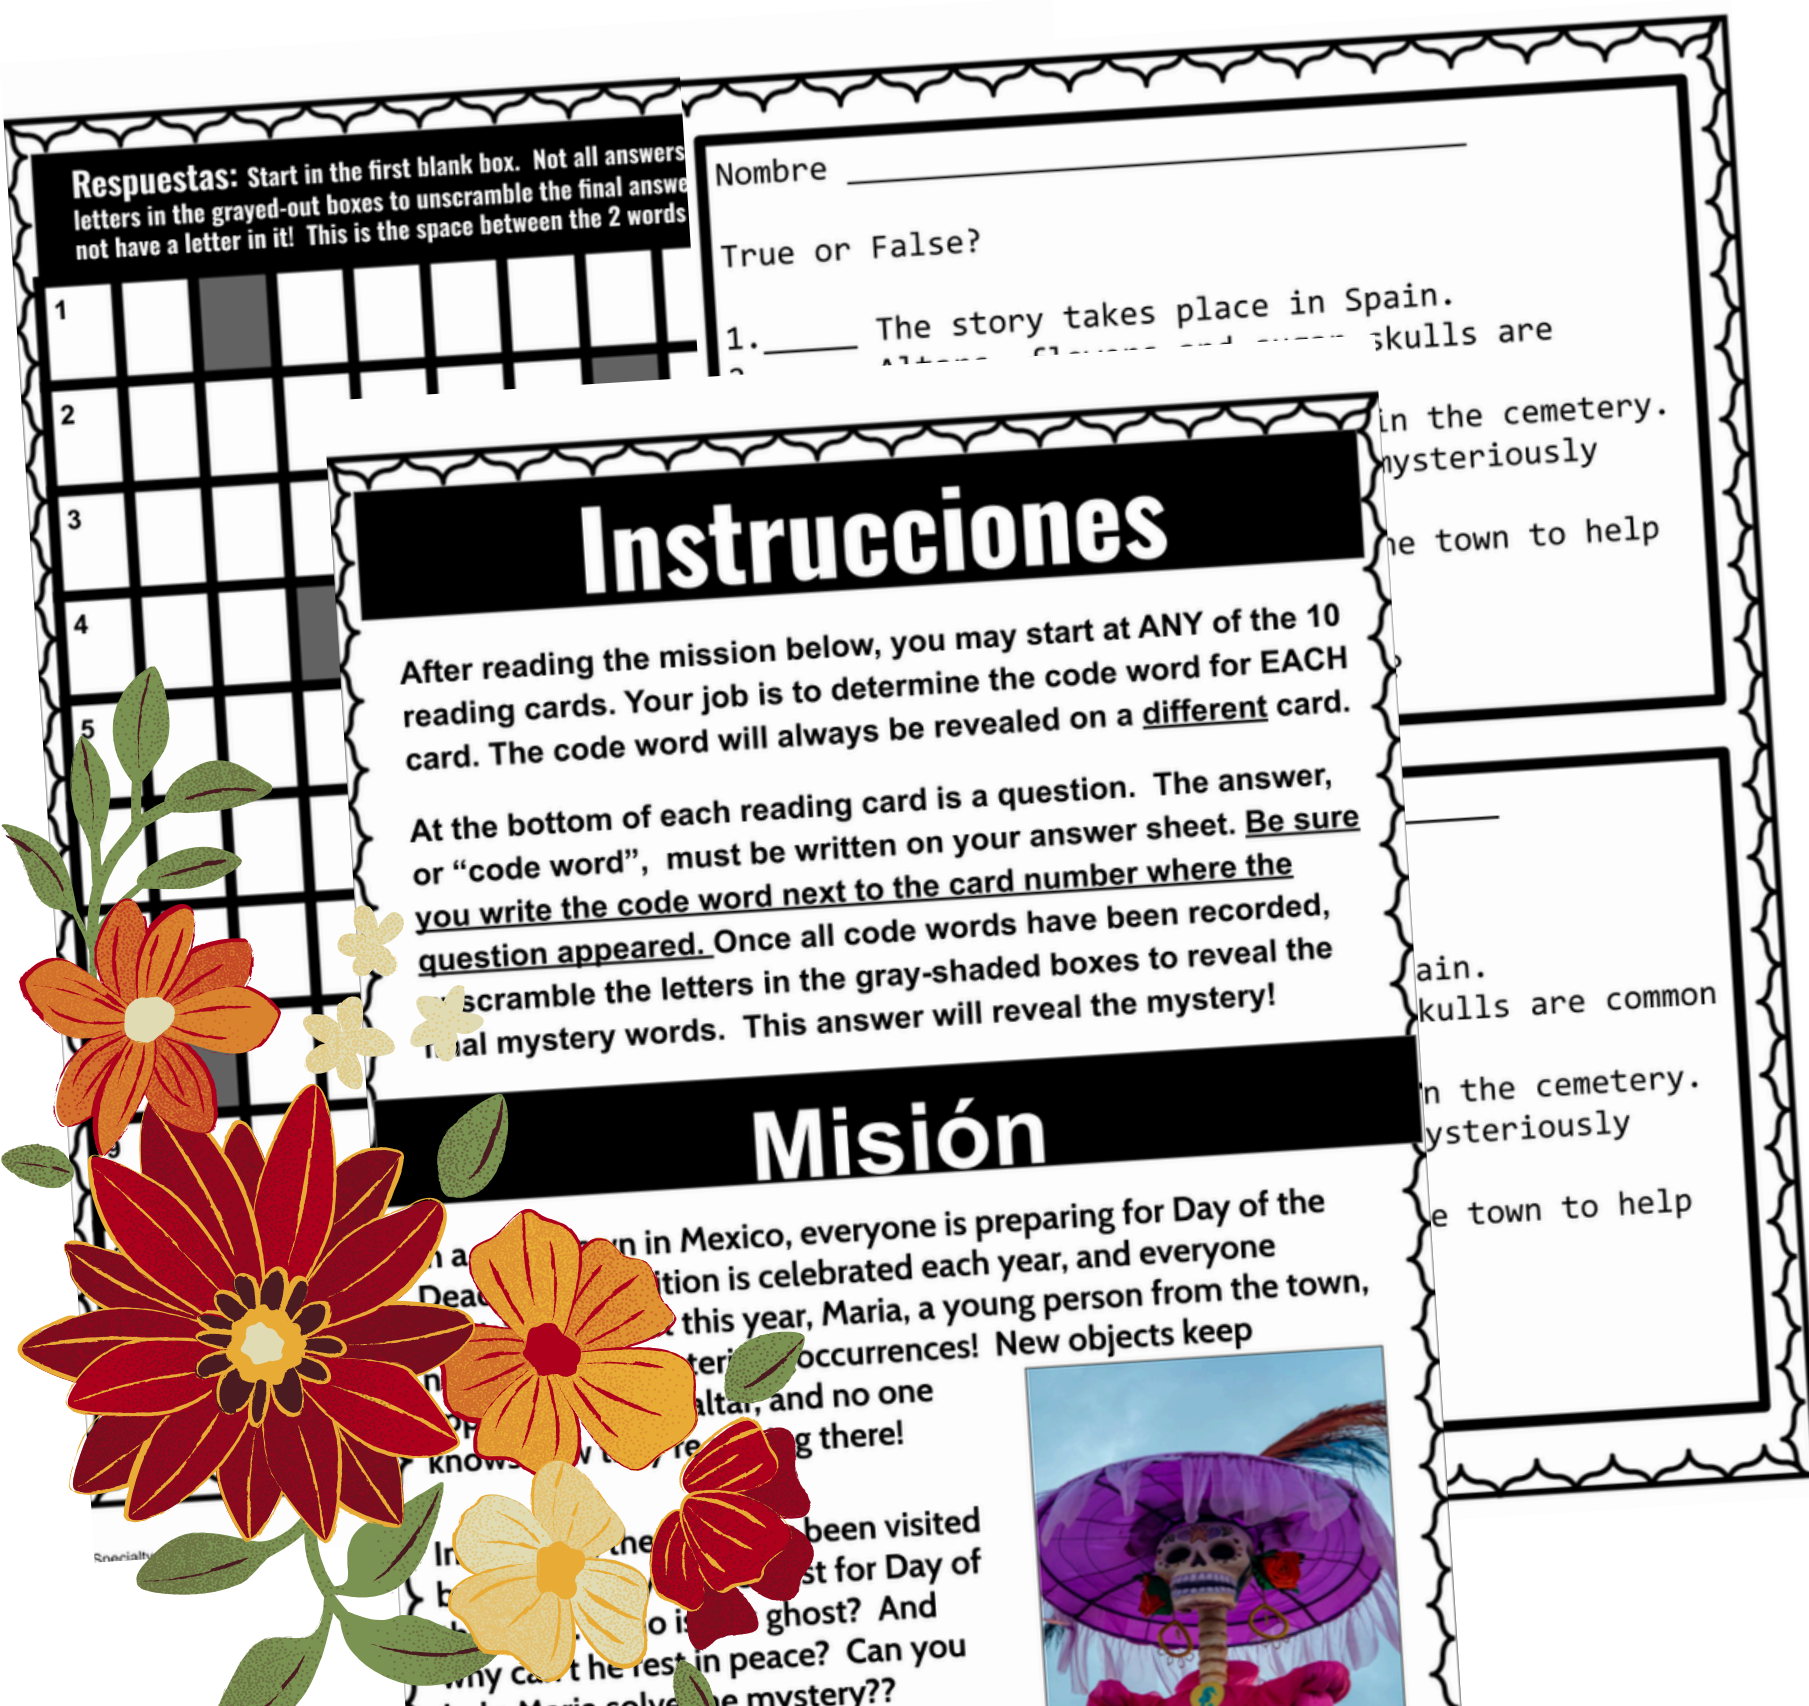

Student grid answers

Then they unscramble the special letters to solve the mystery!

Check This Out!

Students grid answers here. There's a teacher answer key and a hint card to help students along if needed! Differentiation- done!

Check This Out!

4 Different Follow-Up Activities To Check for Comprehension and to Extend Learning!

Nombre _____

True or False?

1. _____ The story takes place in Spain.
2. _____ Altars, flowers and sugar skulls are common at this time of year.
3. _____ It is forbidden to gather in the streets.
4. _____ A scarf and a soccer ball mysteriously appear on the altar.
5. _____ María gets the people of the town to help her.

Nombre _____ Fecha _____

Instrucciones: Write an explanation for the identity of the ghost and an explanation for his death.

Who is it?
What kind of a person was he? What was he passionate about?
What happened to him, related to soccer, that caused his death? Hint: Research what happened in the quarter final game with Mexico's team.)

Nombre: _____

In English describe the story you read.

_____ used the ghost's death?

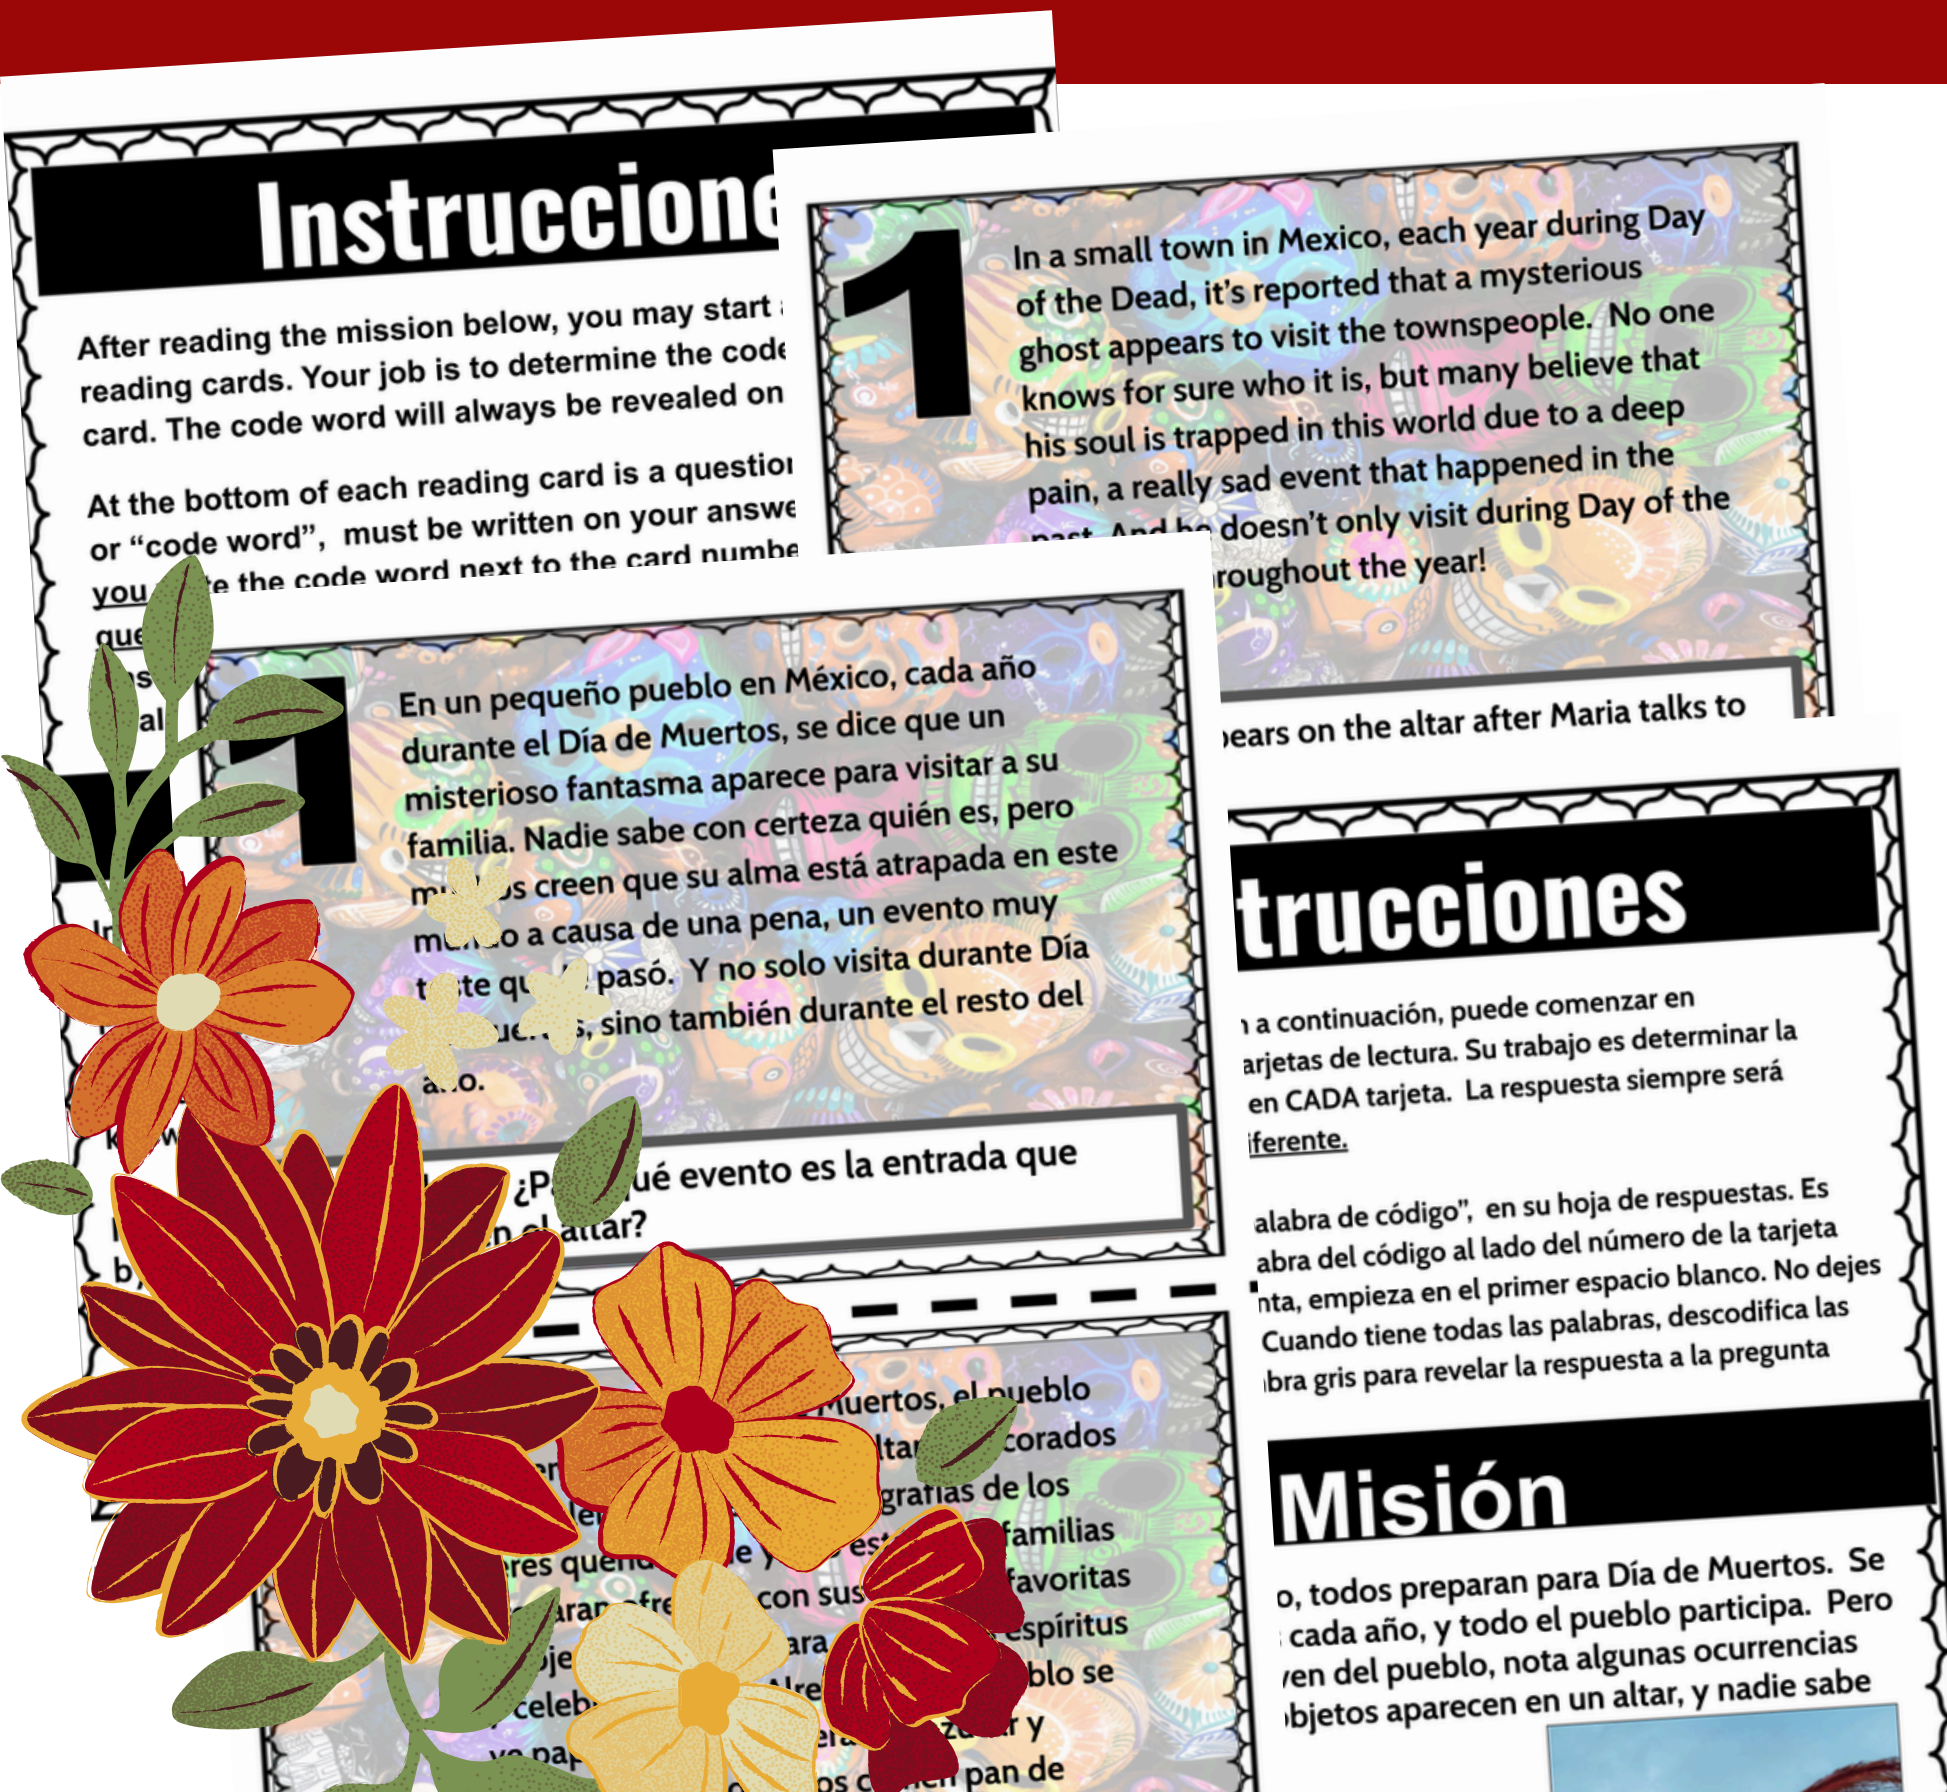

_____ Fecha _____

_____ el gráfico con la información necesaria. _____ información del texto del misterio y del Internet.

Información para la celebración	Foto del objeto

Best of All....

The Spanish & English versions give you the ease of having the same lesson plan for all of your classes! Novices can read in English, and Intermediates in Spanish!

Need All the Fall Stuff?

Save time and money when you get this resource and all of the other Fall must-haves for Spanish teachers!

This sanity-saving bundle includes a Fall-themed writing and speaking scenario cards, a writing challenge, a digital vocab puzzle for Dia de muertos and an authentic listening activity! Click the image!

