STUDENTS STRUGGLING WITH CONVERSATIONS?

Guided Conversation:
La rutina diaria
Novice Version #1

Instrucciones: You will participate in a conversation with your partner about your daily routine. Use this guide to help you keep the conversation going. Your goal is to find out what parts of your schedule you have in common.

Persona A: Greet your partner and ask an introductory question.
Persona B: Greet your partner and answer the question.
Persona A: Tell your partner what your daily routine is like after school each day. Ask about their afternoons.
Persona B: Answer the question.
Persona A: Ask a follow up question based on what your partner said.
Persona B: Answer the question, and ask your partner a new question about their schedule in the evening.
Persona A: Answer the question. Ask your partner what their evenings are like.
Persona B: Answer the question. Ask a question about their weekends.
Persona A: Answer the question. Find out if their weekend schedule is similar to yours.
Persona B: Continue the conversation.
Persona A: Make a conclusion about your routines. (Are they similar or different?)
Persona B: Agree with your partner, and give a specific reason why.

ALL THE DETAILS

- These conversation guides give students general suggestions for how to keep the conversation moving.
- Students still must create with language, but in a scaffolded way, with a familiar theme in mind.
- Both students practice asking and answering questions.

Feedback From Other Guided Conversations

“It is so helpful to have these types of supplemental materials on hand to help the students master the material. It would otherwise take me hours to create all of these -- and they wouldn't look as nice!”
